Respect Sir / Madam,

I am writing this letter to bring to your immediate attention a serious incident of physical assault that occurred on 1st July outside the college campus.

I, Ajay Singh, a student of B.com (A&F), was physically assaulted by Naveen and by his friends near the college. This incident has not only caused me but also my brother got injured, he got attacked by the pointed iron object which result into the bleeding from his head.

Such acts of violence are completely unacceptable in an educational institution and go against the values of discipline and respect that our college stands for. I respectfully request that the college authorities investigate the matter thoroughly, take strict disciplinary action against those responsible, and ensure the safety and well-being of all students on campus. I hope for your kind support and urgent action on this matter.

Thanking you.
