Research & Development Cell Activity Report for 'Shodh-Anveshan'

Brief Introduction

Research & Development Cell had organized 'Shodh-Anveshan' a Student Research Convention. The theme of this research convention was Artificial Intelligence. The Judges for the event were Dr. Hiren Dand, Head of the Department of Information Technology, Mulund College of Commerce(Autonomous) and Dr. Navsin Mistry, Principal, M V Mandali's College of Commerce & Science. The objective of this event was to inculcate the culture of research amongst students.

The students from all departments presented their research papers. Best three research paper presentations were selected by the judges and awarded with certificates of achievement and trophies. All the students' participants were provided with the e-certificate of presentation. The Shodh-Anveshan has embarked on a new journey of research amongst the students.

Objective of the Activity

- To encourage students to engage in independent research, enhancing their skills in data collection, analysis, and critical thinking.
- To provide opportunities for students to present novel ideas, solutions, and approaches to real-world problems.

Total number of participants: 54

Outcome of the event

After the activity the participants were able to:

- Develop a deeper understanding of the research process, improving their abilities in areas such as problem formulation, methodology, data analysis, and scholarly writing.
- Presenting research to peers, faculty, and professionals helps students build confidence in their ability to communicate complex ideas effectively.
